

About the Skokie Festival of Cultures

Formed in 1991, more than 25,000 visitors attend the festival, annually, the third weekend in May. The event, held at Oakton Park, brings together dozens of the world's cultures, reflecting the more than 80 languages spoken in Skokie. The festival features music and entertainment on two stages, ethnic cuisine, children's activities, a merchandise bazaar, and ethnic arts and crafts. For more information call (847) 674-1500 or go online to www.skokieculturefest.org.
